Clause 3 - Administration

- 3a. Subject to the matters set out below the Organisation and its property shall be administered and managed in accordance with this constitution by the members of the Executive Committee/Shura, constituted by clause 8 of this Constitution ("the Executive Committee/Shura").

Clause 4 – Basic Founding Principles and Values

- 4a. The following clause embodies the basic founding principles which shall be permanent and entrenched. This clause may never be altered.

“Obedience in line with Allah's guidance to achieve human excellence”

Character of Islamic Organisations and its Workers

- 4b. The purpose of an Islamic organisation is to bring about the collective potential of the whole community for the good of mankind with due respect and regard to all forms of life and nature. In order to achieve these goals, the following are among the essential characters of individuals and organisations:

Kindness: "Those who act kindly receive kindness and more. Neither dust nor disgrace comes near their faces. They will be inhabitants of paradise; they will live there forever." Qur'an: 10:26

Goodness: "Indeed, good deeds cancel bad deeds. This is a reminder for the mindful." Qur'an: 11:114

Patience and Perseverance: "O you who believe, be patient and persevering, persistent; strengthen each other. Fear Allah Ta'ala in order that you may prosper." Qur'an 3:200

Forgiveness: "Practice forgiveness, promote decency, and avoid ignorant people." Qur'an 7:199

Tolerance: "Let there be no compulsion in religion." Qur'an 2:256

Humility: "The obedient to the Beneficent are they who walk on earth modestly, and when the ignorant address them, they say: "Peace!" Qur'an 25:63

Equity and Justice: "O you who believe! Be steadfast witness for Allah in equity, and let not the hatred of any people seduce you to deal unjustly. Do justice; that is nearer to your duty. Fear Allah Ta'ala. Indeed, Allah is informed of what you do." Qur'an 5:8

Equality of Mankind: "O people! We have created you from a male and a female, and have made you into nations and tribes so that you may know one another. The noblest of you before Allah is the most Taqwa (Allah conscious). Allah is the all Knower." (Qur'an 49:13)

- 4c. During his farewell address, in which he spoke to the Muslims or rather to entire Mankind, the Prophet (SAW) said: "O people, indeed, your Lord, may He be praised and exalted, is One, and, indeed, your father (Adam) is one. Indeed, there is no superiority for a red man over a black man except through Taqwa (Allah-conscious).
- 4d. The basis of the functions of the congregation in all its affairs shall be to adhere strictly to the tenets of Shari'ah, the Islamic Law, as expounded by the four Sunni juristic schools of thought viz. Hanafi, Shafi, Maliki and Hambali Schools commonly referred to as the Ahlus-Sunnah-wal-Jama'ah.

Clause 21 - Trustees

- 21a. The Charities Act 1993 (S97) defines charity trustees as “the persons having the general control and management of the administration of a charity”. Jaame Masjid have two sets of trustees (1) Managing Trustees and (2) Holding Trustees. Although they are both Trustees of Jaame Masjid they have very different functions. The term ‘Trustees’ is to be read as meaning the charity or managing trustees unless otherwise stated.
1. Charity or Managing Trustees - These individuals shall be appointed as the Executive Committee/Shura placed with the responsibility in managing Jaame Masjid operations on a day to day basis. Where an individual is appointed to the Executive Committee/Shura and accepts the appointment by signing the Trustee Code of Conduct that individual becomes a Trustee of the Jaame Masjid. It is important therefore that every new Executive Committee Member reads through the Constitution in order to ensure they are aware of their responsibilities.
 2. Holding “Custodial” Trustees – Jaame Masjid has made provision for a second set of Trustees to be appointed - these are the “Holding Trustees”. The properties, titles, land and investments owned by the Organisation shall be registered in the name of the “Holding Trustees”. Their sole function is to hold the title to the property. They shall not be involved in the day to day operations of Jaame Masjid, this is the responsibility of the Managing Trustees.
- 21b. The property and all assets of the Organisation shall be vested in the Holding Trustees, to be dealt with by them as the Executive Committee/Shura shall from time to time direct by resolution (of which an entry in the minute book shall be conclusive evidence). The Holding Trustees shall be indemnified against risk and expenses out of the Organisation's assets.
- 21c. No remuneration shall be paid to the members of the Organisation appointed as Trustees. Holding Trustees whilst holding office of Trustee cannot be eligible for election to the Executive Committee/Shura but would be able to attend meetings as observers by invitation.

- 21d. Only founding members and their offspring can serve as Holding Trustees of the Organisation.
- 21e. The Holding Trustees have the right to request for financial details of the Organisation and upon invitation only shall be permitted to attend\observe management meetings.
- 21f. If the Executive Committee/Shura fails to carry out its full responsibilities when a formal complaint has been lodged and served in writing within a period of 21 days, the Holding Trustees can request the Executive/Shura Committee to hold an Extraordinary Meeting if one-third members request in writing for the dissolution of the Executive Committee/Shura. One third members should independently submit written notification of each other citing valid reasons for such vote of no confidence and the actions to be taken with particular reference to the Values and Objects of the Charity whilst demonstrating with supporting evidence the actions of the Executive Committee has been of such Gross Misconduct that is damages the Charity's reputation.
- 21g. Prior to an Extraordinary Meeting being held, the Holding Trustees shall undertake a full investigation and satisfy themselves of any negligence/wrong doing. The Holding Trustees shall report their findings to an independent scrutiny panel and if the investigation validates the findings as bona fide only shall then an Extraordinary Meeting be held to decide on the outcome of the investigation and position of the Executive Committee/Shura.

Clause 22 - Annual Report

- 22a. The Executive Committee/Shura shall comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that Act) with regard to the preparation of an annual report and its transmission to the Charity Commission.

Clause 23 - General Meeting

- 23a. There shall be a General Meeting of the Organisation which shall be held every three years or as soon as practicable thereafter. The Annual General Meeting shall be held every year.
- 23b. Every General Meeting shall be called by the Executive Committee/Shura. The Secretary shall give at least 21 days' notice of the General Meeting/Annual General Meeting to the members of the Organisation on the Masjid public notice board and in writing by letter and/or by electronic correspondence. All the members of the Organisation shall be entitled to attend and vote at the meeting provided they are eligible.
- 23c. Before any other business is transacted at the General Meeting/Annual General Meeting the persons present shall appoint a Chairman/Ameer of the meeting.

- 23d. The Executive Committee/Shura shall present to General Meeting/Annual General Meeting the report and accounts of the Organisation for the preceding year.
- 23e. If anyone wishes to be elected on to the Executive Committee/Shura. The individual nomination must be made by the members of the organisation in writing and must be hand delivered to the Secretary at least 7 days before the General Meeting.
- 23f. Office bearers as prescribed in "Clause 9a" of the Executive Committee/Shura shall be permitted to serve two terms in the designated position prescribed. If the Executive Committee/Shura member expresses to serve again in the same designated position they held previously, they shall be required to defer appointment to such a position for a minimum period of three years. Office bearers shall be permitted to remain on the Executive Committee/Shura beyond two terms on the provision they are re-elected and shall not be appointed to the same designated position they previously held over the two terms.

Clause 24 - Extraordinary General Meetings

- 24a. The Executive Committee/Shura may call an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Organisation at any time. If at least one-third members request such a meeting in writing stating the reason of business to be considered the secretary shall consult the Executive Committee/Shura for consideration. At least 7 days' notice must be given. The notice must state the business to be discussed.

Clause 25 - Procedure at General Meetings

- 25a. The Secretary or other person shall keep a full record of proceedings by taking minutes at every general meeting.
- 25b. There shall be a quorum when at least one-quarter of the number of members of the Organisation are present at any general meeting.
- 25c. If the first meeting of the General Meeting under 23B was not in quorum, then a further meeting will be held with a 21 day period upon notice to the members. Those attending the second meeting (where the meeting attendance does not have to be quorate) will have the right to pass the resolution of the Charity.

Clause 26 - Notices

26a. Any communication required to be served on any member of the Charity shall be in writing and shall be served by the Secretary or the Executive Committee/Shura on any member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to such member at his or her last known address in the United Kingdom, and any letter so sent shall be deemed to have been received within 10 days of posting.

Clause 27 - Alterations to the Constitution.

27a. Subject to the following provisions of this clause the Constitution may be altered by resolution passed by not less than two-third members of the General Membership. For the amendment(s), a minimum of one-third members will be required to submit the amendment in writing. The notice of the general meeting must include notice of the resolution, setting out the terms of the alteration proposed.

27b. No amendments may be made to clause 1 (the name of charity clause), clause 3 (the objects clause), clause 5 (the membership clause), clause 16 (Executive Committee / Shura Members not to be personally interested clause), clause 26 (the dissolution clause) or this clause.

27c. No amendment may be made which would cause the charity to cease to be a charity at law.

27d. The Executive Committee/Shura should promptly send to the Commissioners a copy of the amendment made under this clause.

Clause 28 - Dissolution

28a. If the Executive Committee/Shura decides that it is necessary or advisable to dissolve the charity it shall call a meeting of all members of the charity, of which not less than 21 days' notice (stating the terms of the resolution to be proposed) shall be given. If the proposal is confirmed by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting the Executive Committee/Shura shall have power to realise any assets held by or on behalf of the charity. Any assets remaining after the satisfaction of any proper debts and liabilities shall be given or transferred to such other charitable institutions having objects similar to the objects of the charity may determine or failing that shall be applied for some other charitable purpose. A copy of the statement of accounts, or account and statement, for the final accounting period of the Charity shall be sent to the Commissioners.

Clause 29 – Misconduct

- 29a. The Executive Committee/Shura has the right to reject and/or withdraw membership of any individual/member. For instance, any one causing nuisance or distress, damaging the society reputation, giving out false information which is detrimental, about the Organisation, including shouting or causing disturbance in the organisations, which includes public announcement using microphone without permission of Executive Committee will result in gross misconduct.
- 29b. If anyone is a member or part of an Executive Committee of another Mosque Committee, they cannot serve on Jaame Masjid Executive Committee/Shura in order to avoid any form of conflict of interest. Once appointed and if it is later found that the member is serving on another Masjid/Mosque Committee, the Chairman/Ameer/Committee have the right to dismiss the member from the Committee.
